

1. Introduction and Purpose

This Employee Handbook ('Handbook') has been prepared to provide information about our company's policies, procedures, and benefits. The purpose of this handbook is to provide guidelines, policies, and procedures that govern employment at the organization, helping employees understand their rights, responsibilities, and the company's expectations.

This Handbook applies to all full-time and part-time employees. The company reserves the right to amend, modify, or revoke any policy at any time. By accepting employment, you agree to read, understand, and comply with all guidelines set forth herein. Questions should be directed to your HR representative.

5. Resignation and Termination

5.1 Voluntary Resignation

Employees who choose to leave the company voluntarily are expected to provide reasonable notice. Employees are expected to provide at least two weeks written notice before resigning from their position. This notice should be submitted in writing to both your direct manager and the HR department.

Senior management positions (Director level and above) are expected to provide a minimum of four weeks written notice.

5.2 Notice Period Conduct

During the notice period, employees must maintain regular duties, assist with the transition of responsibilities, and return all company property in good condition.

8. Working Hours and Attendance

8.1 Standard Working Hours

The standard working week is 40 hours, typically Monday through Friday.

8.2 Core Hours

Core working hours are from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM local time, during which all employees must be available for meetings and collaboration. Outside of these core hours, employees have flexibility in scheduling their working day, subject to operational requirements and manager approval.

8.3 Flexible Working

The company supports flexible working arrangements where operationally feasible. All arrangements must be agreed in advance with your line manager.

12. Annual Leave

12.1 Leave Entitlement

Full-time employees are entitled to 20 days of paid annual leave per year, which increases to 25 days after five years of service. Part-time employees receive leave on a pro-rated basis.

12.2 Leave Year

The leave year runs from January 1st to December 31st. Leave must be taken within the leave year in which it is accrued.

12.3 Booking Leave

All annual leave requests must be submitted through the HR portal with a minimum of two weeks advance notice for periods of one week or less, and four weeks for longer periods. Approval is subject to business requirements.

15. Remote Work Policy

15.1 Eligibility

Eligibility for remote work is determined by role type, performance record, and business needs. Not all roles are suitable for remote working.

15.2 Remote Work Allowance

Employees may work remotely up to three days per week with manager approval, provided they maintain productivity and attend required in-person meetings. All remote working arrangements must be agreed in advance with your line manager.

15.3 Equipment and Security

Employees working remotely must use company-issued equipment and ensure their internet connection is secure. Confidential information must not be visible to or accessible by others.

18. Parental Leave

18.1 Eligibility

All employees who have been employed for a minimum of 12 months are eligible to apply for parental leave.

18.2 Notification Requirements

Employees must notify HR at least eight weeks before the expected leave start date and submit a formal parental leave request form for manager and HR approval. This notification should include the expected start date, anticipated duration, and any requested adjustments to working arrangements upon return.

18.3 Duration and Pay

Statutory parental leave pay applies in all cases, with enhanced pay subject to length of service.

20. Disciplinary Procedures

20.1 Purpose

The disciplinary procedure is designed to help and encourage employees to achieve and maintain standards of conduct.

20.2 Progressive Disciplinary Steps

Disciplinary procedures follow a progressive approach: verbal warning, written warning, final written warning, and termination, depending on the severity of the misconduct. The company reserves the right to skip steps in cases of gross misconduct.

20.3 Gross Misconduct

Certain offenses are considered gross misconduct and may result in immediate termination without prior warnings, including theft, fraud, violence, and serious data breaches.

20.4 Right of Appeal

Employees may appeal any disciplinary decision within five business days of receiving written notice of the outcome.

22. Workplace Harassment and Discrimination Policy

22.1 Policy Statement

The company has a zero-tolerance policy for harassment of any kind. We are committed to providing a work environment free of harassment, discrimination, and hostile conduct. Employees who experience or witness harassment should report it to HR immediately. All reports are investigated confidentially.

22.2 Definition of Harassment

Harassment includes any unwelcome conduct based on a protected characteristic (including sex, race, religion, disability, age, or sexual orientation).

22.3 Reporting Procedure

Complaints should be made to your HR Business Partner or via the anonymous reporting hotline. All complaints will be treated seriously and investigated promptly.

25. IT Support and Resources

25.1 Help Desk Services

The IT department provides technical support for all company-issued hardware and software. Employees should contact the IT Help Desk by submitting a ticket through the internal portal or calling the support hotline during business hours (Monday to Friday, 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM).

25.2 Response Times

The IT Help Desk aims to respond to priority issues within four business hours and standard requests within one business day.

25.3 Self-Service Resources

A knowledge base of common solutions and FAQs is available on the company intranet. Employees are encouraged to consult it before submitting a ticket.

30. Conflicts of Interest

30.1 Policy

Employees must disclose any potential conflicts of interest to their manager and HR in writing. Outside employment or financial interests that conflict with company duties are prohibited without written approval.

30.2 What Constitutes a Conflict

A conflict of interest arises when an employee's personal interests could influence, or appear to influence, their professional judgment. This includes financial interests in competitors, suppliers, or clients, and personal relationships with vendors.

30.3 Disclosure Requirements

All potential conflicts must be declared using the Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form, submitted upon employment and updated annually.

30.4 Consequences

Failure to disclose may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

35. Performance Management

35.1 Review Cycle

Performance reviews are conducted annually in December, with a mid-year check-in in June. Reviews involve self-assessment, manager evaluation, and goal-setting for the following year.

35.2 Performance Rating Scale

Performance is rated on a five-point scale: Exceptional, Exceeds Expectations, Meets Expectations, Needs Improvement, and Unsatisfactory.

35.3 Goal-Setting

Goals are set using the SMART framework and should align with both team and company objectives.
